

Sectional Overhead Door

Insulated Sectional Overhead Door

Product: Sectional Overhead Door

Fit: Internal face and internal reveal fit

Popular Use: Commercial and Industrial

Security Level: Medium to High Security

Panel Options: Standard panel 40mm insulated, 80mm available on request. Option to have full a glazed panel or to incorporate windows and wicket gates.

Maximum width: 8000mm

Finish: Wide range of plastisol finish, option to RAL match, internal colour white as standard.

Panel Options: Standard panel 40mm insulated, 80mm available on request. Option to have full a glazed panel or to incorporate windows and wicket gates.

Operation Options: Manual hand chain or Outboard/Inline motor operation.

Outboard/Inline motor comes with a push button control panel as standard, with a vast range of operating functions to upgrade to. Such as; loop detection, motion detection (personnel or vehicle) Key pad, remote and lots more.

All of our overhead sectional doors come with spring brake safety devices, cable brake safety devices and finger protection as standard.

All have manual chain override options, customised to suit your application. The doors can be operated in various ways, to suit you, your environment and your level of usage.

Drawings are available on request.